Vol. 26 Number 11, Thursday, March 16, 1972 | 510 Broadway Seaside, Calif. 93955 Area Code 408: 394-6632 | VAC | 10 cents per copy; $5.00 per year by mail

Your Fourth District Supervisor--Loren Smith

LOREN E. SMITH has been your Supervisor for the past five years and is now running for re-election. He has been well prepared for this important position which effects all of our readers. Your incumbent supervisor received his education in Monterey County School, which has been his home for many years. This gives him a sound understanding of the many problems affecting the entire county. His long background in banking, over a period of 40 years in the county, has equipped him with the knowledge needed to make sound judgements in budgets and effective use of the taxpayers' dollar.

He has experienced a wide range of community service. He served 11 years as an elected member of the Pacific Grove Unified School District, equiping him with an understanding in this field which in no other way could be acquired. His election and re-election as a Director of the Monterey Peninsula Airport Board served to further broaden and deepen his understanding of problems on the Monterey Peninsula. In the field of health he has also had a wide exposure to the many complex problems of the health and medical services on the Monterey Peninsula, having served on the Monterey Peninsula Community Hospital Board for 2 terms, (6 years). In still another field of services, Supervisor Smith has had the privilege of serving such organizations as the Boy Scouts of America for more than 25 years and holds the Silver Beaver Award. This is the highest award that can be given to a volunteer adult scouter.

In addition he has served the local Heart Association as treasurer for 10 years, and a certificate of appreciation from this organization hangs on his office wall along with the appreciation award given to him by the City of Seaside for his community service while serving as Bank Manager in this city before his early retirement. Some of the other community activities with which he has been associated with are: Director of the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest for 5 years; Director of the Monterey Peninsula Red Cross Family Service Board for 3 years; Monterey Peninsula Salvation Army Board of Directors for 10 years; Member of Seaside Chamber of Commerce for 10 years; Monterey County Council on Youth and Tri-County Comprehensive Health for 2 years.

His current community activities include student employment service of the Monterey Peninsula which he is serving as vice-president; Chairman of the Monterey/Santa Cruz Air Pollution Control Board; Director of AMBAG (Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments); Chairman of the Employees Relations Committee of the California Supervisors Association; Appointed by the Governor to the Co-Ordinating Council on Public Personnel Management; Budget Review Commission for the County Supervisors Association of California; and a Member of the Seaside Rotary Club and Past President.

He is your FULL-TIME SUPERVISOR and is constantly aware of your needs and will continue to devote his energies on behalf of his constituents of the 4th Supervisorial District.

He was appointed to the Monterey County Board of Supervisors soon after retiring and his constituents honored him by electing him to a four year term, which he is now serving.

It is necessary for you, the public to KNOW YOUR SUPERVISOR. Know where he goes, what he does, how he feels, how he acts and how he thinks about affairs that concern you. Follow his weekly activities on the inside of the SEASIDE POST News-Sentinel.

Basketball Game Will Benefit Manzanita Students

Monterey Peninsula Unified School District administrators will be exposing their rubbery legs, tatoos and their general inability to play basketball tonight (Thursday), but all for a food cause.

At 8 o'clock, in the Seaside High School gymnasium, central office administrators will meet Seaside area school principals in what the promoter promises will be "the most exciting basketball game of the year."

Tickets are $1 in advance at Manzanita, Ord Terrace, Juan Cabrillo, Highland, Fremont and King Schools or $1.50 at the door. Proceeds will go to the Manzanita School Disneyland Club. Sixth grade students in the club are trying to raise money for a trip to -- you guessed it -- Disneyland.

The game was the idea of Rudolph Williams, a community counselor aide at Manzanita and is one of several events staged to raise money for the trip. Last month, the Desneyland Club held a community fun day, featuring soul food and entertainment.

The game is being viewed as an evening of fun and (hopefully) excitement, but for Williams, it means much more than that.

It's a means of showing the sixth grade youngsters what can be accomplished by working together and of showing them that people in the community care and are willing to help them, Williams explained.

He said he hopes that people from other parts of the Peninsula will join Seaside residents at the game.

Taking pity on out-of-shape administrators, Williams has arranged for the Seaside Magicians basketball team to strengthen the central office team. Seaside principals will be backed up by all-star players from King and Fremont junior high schools.

(By Clint Porter)

I could write about the things that are happening all over the world, like the Wild Cat SP Strike, (you read about that already); or the Blacks forming their own political team in Gary, Indiana, (you read about that too); or maybe the train wreck back east, (you hadn't heard?) Well, it seems that the railroad authorities are trying to figure out how two trains going in opposite directions could be on the same track at the same time. They know the results: (yep) BANG! (Oh, now you remember reading about it). But I think I'll just start off with a personal experience. Someone told me that Ediotrials should be more personalized. Here goes:

A few months ago I picked up a TV Guide and the center sheet was an advertisement that seemed too good to be true. Here was this Longines Symphonette AM-FM Radio/Stereo Phonograph equipped with twin speakers, dust cover, Automatic Frequency Control (AFC), Slide-type tone and volume controls, and woodgrain (simulated) cabinet; original cost somewhere around $89.95. Special offer only $19.95, plus tax (small print), plus shipping cost and State Tax (smaller print). Wow, what a bargain, and what a savings. But I wanted more. And they offered more. If you act right then you could choose any album of your choice free,

Seaside High Math Lab Gets Recognition

The State Department of Education's Mathematics Task Force has chosen Seaside School's Math Lab as an "exemplary program" and is inviting educators from throughout the state to visit it for observations.

About 550 students visit the lab daily to get individualized instruction in basic mathematics and algebra.

Actually, explained Charles Lovett, Chairman of the school's division of required studies, the lab operated on limited basis last year and was really the product of three teachers who were assigned to King Junior High School before transferring to Seaside High.

Four teachers operate the lab daily on a rotating basis and are helped by two paid instructional aides and three student aides.

Along with being totally individualized (meaning that each student works on his own level and at his own pace), the lab functions under a variable credit system. Under this system, students obtain credits for the number of learning objectives they have completed, Lovett explained.

Besides working on their own individual objectives, the 90 to 100 students in the lab during any given period of the day are taking any of four basic courses offered there, Lovett said. Students enroll in either the math proficiency course (basic math skills); a review of mathematics fundamentals course; first year algebra (first half) or first year algebra (second half). Sophomores, juniors and seniors are in the lab at the same time, taking whichever course they require. In addition, about half a dozen students have completed algebra objectives and are working on individualized geometry instruction, Lovett said.

Teachers Lovett, Krause and Mrs. Norton are primarily responsible for developing the lab approach. While at King Junior High, the three had begun individualizing instruction and the Seaside High lab is an outgrowth of that process, Lovett said. The lab is operating at full force this year for the first time.

Although the lab approach makes more work for the teachers, Lovett explained advantages it offers to students. Each student is given a diagnostic test when he enters, so teachers can determine what skills he needs to learn. In this way, each student can start learning from the point where he is at the moment -- not having to waste time with unnecessary review and not having to tackle a skill beyond his understanding. Students have to complete each set of instructional objectives before moving to a more complex skill.

Because the lab is individualized, students don't have the pressure of keeping up with classmates, as they would in a traditional classroom approach. Lovett said this flexibility allows a large number of students to enter math programs they might not otherwise take.

In addition, once a student completes his objectives in the various math courses, he can transfer into a different class at any time during the year, provided space is available.

One teacher at the high school maintains a traditional classroom approach to algebra and students who perfer a regular classroom setting can enroll there as an alternative, Lovett said.

United Fund Disburses Its Receipts

The Monterey Peninsula United Fund this week announced the distribution of a whopping $176,350 to the 14 local services it supports.

The largest single contribution was $29,500 to Family Service Agency, with $27,500 going to the Boy Scouts, $24,500 to the Salvation Army and $23,500 to Girl Scouts.

Other recipients were: Visiting Nurse Association, $13,000; Gateway Center, $12,000; Monterey Peninsula Alcoholism Council, $11,500; Boys Club of the Monterey Peninsula, $9,000; Suicide Prevention Center, $8,000; Handicapped Activities Unlimited, $7,800; U.S.O. (local), $5,000; U.S.O. (national), $3,000; Campfire Girls, $2,000 oand Traveler's Aid, $50.

The Fund drive this year raised just over $200,000 on the Peninsula at a campaign cost of $17,000 or less than 10 percent, which, according to Executive Director Gil Funston, is a very good ratio.

Funston lauded the efforts of all of his committees and volunteer workers and paid special tribute to the campaign chairman, Robert L. Meester, a Monterey stockbroker.

Toast Ireland

Don't forget to try the shamrock shakes now being featured at McDonald's Restuarent, 1433 Fremont Boulevard, Seaside. This Shake is a special green milk shake created in honor of St. Patrick's Day, March 17. They will be available until Sunday, Maach 19.

Remember: McDonald's is your kind of place.

Cuba Should BeRecognized Says Vercoe

Cuba should be recognized by the Unites States, accoding to Congressional Candidate Mel Vercoe of Monterey.

"Cuba does exist," says Mr. Verco, "as a communist country, just a China exists as a communist country. We tried to destroy both of them by imposing economic embargoes. We failed in this and finally stopped pouting long enough to admit that China is part of the world. It is about time for us to realize we should encourage, not discourage, trade and friendships with other nations if we ar to survive ourselves."

"Most or all of the plane hijackings to Cuba could be halted, if we had normal relations with Cuba and until we do establish such relations I think we should try to at least have an agreement whereby we would pay a sizeable and attractive reward to the Cubans for returning plane hijackers to the U.S. for prosecution."

Phone Numbers to Crisis Agencies Have Been Posted

Informational decals listing telephone numbers of five major 24-hour crisis line agencies have been placed in public restrooms throughout the Monterey Peninsula, by members of the Altrusa Club of the Monterey Peninsula, as a public sercice project.

Agencies of critical social concern listed include those dealing with drug abuse, alcoholism, suicide prevention, venereal disease and family problems.

While no official public endorsement has been given by the Monterey County Health Department, the proposal has been met with approval by department offficials. Directors of the social agencies involved as well as law enforcement personnel are enthusiastic about the venture.

Although the problems of drug abuse are one of Altrusa International's major concerns, the local Club was particularly motivated after talks given by Officer Terry Magnan, of the Seaside Police Department and Jean Archambault, former Pacific Grove police officer.

Mrs. David W. Stevens, Altrusa member, designed the attractive blue and white decal, utilizing the colors of Altrusa International and the Club seal.

Bill Will Provide More Disability to Soledad Employees

Assemblyman Bob Wood has introduced a bill to provide additional disability benefits to employees at the Soledad Correctional Facility who are injured in a prison disorder.

Wood said, "these last few years have shown that any state employee in a state correctional facility is subject to possible threats of injury from the misconduct of an inmate or a prison disorder."

The present law provides for a leave o absence to certain law enforcement classes for up to one year without loss of salary if these employees are in ured and disabled on the job. This is a good and fair law as these people are putting their life on the line for the protection of our society.

The Monterey County Assemblyman said that "incidents this past year have shown tha all employees in our prisons are subject to danger to their lives because of prison disturbances. The bill we have introduced with the cooperation of the California State Employees Association will allow non-uniformed employees at Soledad to recover from their disabling injuries caused by the misconduct by inmates without loss of salary to the state employee and his family."

Senator Dills has introduced a companion bill to Wood's which would make these benefits apply to the uniformed personnel at Soledad also.

Wood went on to say that "if these people are being injuried and maimed by prisoners, they deserve this minimum benefit." This state disability program is referred to by state employees as "4800 time."

BAR-BE-QUED FRANKFURTERS

This recipe is a special favorite with youngsters.

Serve the frankfurters along with a baked potato and a liberal helping of salad for everyone.

1 medium-sized chopped onion
3 tablespoons oil
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup ketchup
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup vinegar, mild
1 tablespoon Worchestershire sauce dash hot sauce
salt and pepper to taste
12 frankfurters

Brown onion in salad oil, add all the remaining ingredients except the franks and simmer for 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. If you desire, you can make sauce hotter by adding chili powder. Split the franks and place them in a shallow baking pan. Pour the sauce over them and bake at 375o for 30 minutes. Baste several times. Serves six.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Anniversary

The Girl Scout Diamond Jubilee Banquet was held in Carmel on February 29.

The keynote address was given by the Hon. Fulton Freeman, former Ambassador to Mexico and President of the Institute of Foreign Studies, who served as Master of Ceremonies for the event. The banquet was held to celebrate the 60th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts in America and to recognize the many men and women who have given outstanding service to the Girl Scouts.

Among those men honored were the chairman and 21 coordinators of the first Annual Independent Drive for membership held in the Council. Seven other men were given special awards for a variety of services in developing camp, working with girls and leaders in special programs and providing administrative leadership.

Mrs. George Owens and Mrs. W.A. Foster received gold pins for outstanding long term, on-going service to Girl Scouts. Mrs. Owens has been active in Scouting for 12 years. She has been registrar, coordinator for girl events, neighborhood secretary, served on election and a Cadette leader and consultant. Mrs. Foster has also been active in Girl Scouting for 12 years. She has been a Brownie and a Junior leader, troop organizer and consultant and is currently Neighborhood Chairmen.

Mrs. Raymond Gray received a plaque for serving as Chairman of the Annual Independent Drive for membership.

Senior Girl Scouts from Seaside received numerals denoting 10 years as members. They were: Sheri Glazebrook, Kathleen Owens, Kay Ann Phillips, and Shirley Clark from Fort Ord.

Mayor and Mrs. Louis Haddad attended the Banquet.

Today's Army NEWS By Sgt. Jose Garcia

U.S. ARMY RECRUITER

How good is TODAY'S ARMY schooling? That's a question that has been asked many times and I answer it in this manner. Professional educators will tell you that the training and education one gets in TODAY'S ARMY are among the best in the world. In fact, a report published by the Teachers College of Columbia University states that the Armed Forces provide one of the most comprehensive and advanced educational programs to be found anywhere and have, in many ways, surpassed the Nation's colleges and universities in educating American youth. This is understandable in light of the high level of technology reached by our Armed Forces and resulting need for highly educated and trained men in almost every category.

TODAY'S ARMY might be called the world's largest "university". More than 200,000 military personnel are engaged in formal, on-duty education. There are more than 38 military schools and literally thousands of classrooms scattered throughout the country.

This great educational program covers a whole range of subjects from the three R's to those required for a Ph.D. degree.

While your main job in TODAY'S ARMY is to serve as a soldier, we will make every effort to help you continue your education while on active duty. It goes without saying that this will require considerable dedication, hard work and sacrifice on your part, since some of your spare time must be given over to study. But for the ambitious soldier who is determined to make every moment count in furthering his education or technical knowledge, TODAY'S ARMY provides means and opportunities which are virtually unmatched elsewhere.

If you are interested in finding out more about TODAY'S ARMY educational programs give us a call at 372-4742 or stop by 431 Webster Street in Monterey. TILL NEXT WEEK

Hope For Mod Schedule

Monterey Peninsula Unified School District trestees have indicated they favor retaining the modular scheduling system now in its third year of use at Monterey High School.

High School administrators called a community meeting February 10 to air concerns about the scheduling arrangement, explaining that abuse of the "free" time it allows might lead them to recommending that the system be discarded.

Student sentiment is strongly for retaining the system, however.

A letter to the board signed by members of the Student Council Committee to Save the Mod System noted that an opinion poll in January showed 1,300 favored retaining the system, while only 70 students did not.

Under the system, school hours are broken into short "mods" which can be put together in varying combinations, depending on instructional time needs. Students and teachers are given free mods for study, planning or enrichment activities.

Trustees, at their recent meeting, said they wanted to respond to the student letter, agreeing that they favor keeping modular scheduling. Even so, board members indicated they might welcome changes designed to curb abuse of free time.

Monterey High administrators have not yet submitted an official recommendation regarding the scheduling system.

Donates Painting

Carmel artist, Hans Skaalegaard, recently donated an original oil of the USS Constitution to the Naval Postgraduate School in memory of Barbara McNitt. Mrs. McNitt, who died in an automobile accident last year, was the wife of former superintendent, RAdm. Robert W. McNitt.

The painting will be permanently displayed in the school's new library.

Conference Is Planned

On Monday, March 20, the YMCA will hold a conference in colloboration with the Regional U.S. Women's Bureau. The conference, whose topic is "Guidance and Employment of Girls and Women," will be held from 10 am. until 4 p.m. at Merrill Hall, Asilomar in Pacific Grove.

Leading the discussions will be Mrs. Madeline Mixer, Regional Director of the U.S. Women's Bureau and Mr. James E. Pullen, Manager of Human Resources Development in Monterey. Also participating will be leader and representatives from a number of organizations. Included in these will be Jane Van Hook and Pearl Carey.

The program for the day is as follows:

10 a.m. until noon--Exploration of concerns and needs of girls and women with leaders from Chambers of Commerce, employment services, education, unions, civic and government services, service club, social agencies and various racial and women's groups.

Noon until 1 p.m.--Lunch.

1 p.m. to 2 p.m.--Trends in Business and Industry as seen by the Women's Bureau. Mrs. Mixer will discuss new legal aspects of employment of girls and women and their implications for employers, apprenticeship programs and vocational guidance and training in schools and colleges, employment services and on-the-job training. The projected consultation on women's employment with employers and union representatives will be explained.

2 until 4 p.m.--Planning session for possible next steps in this program.

just for acting right away. I almost tore the ad in half ripping it out of the T.V. Gride so fast. I had to hurry. Today may still be too late to take advantage of this once-in-a-life-time offer. Send no money, it said. I selected my album and raced to the Post Office and deposited the mail. Then I sat back and waited. A couple friends of mine had seen the same ad, but they had decided to pass it up. Not me!!

A few weeks later I received a letter from the Capitol Record Club advising me that they had received my request for the Longines Symphonette AM-FM Radio Stereo Phonograph and they were processing it. They said that in a few days I should receive my FREE album. Meanwhile, I had been placed in the "Now Sound" Category and here is the Selection of the Month, which is being sent unless I request it not to be sent before a certain date. I forgot the date, so they sent it. And I also got my free album along with the bill for the Selection of the Month Album. I paid it. A week or so later I got another letter from the Capitol Record Club informing me that my Stereo was ready. (happy day). All I had to do was verify the correct mailing adress and it would be shipped to me. But, "P.S." I was informed that the total cost was $31.90, which included all the taxes, all the shipping cost and all other expenses incurred in the interim. I should check the box pertaining to what action I was taking immediately, so the Stereo could be shipped: #1 - Enclosed is $31.90 paying for Stereo in full; #2 - Enclosed is half of the bill ($15.95) with the other half to be paid at a later date; #3 - I have changed my mind remove my name from membership. I chose #2. I sent them the $15.95 and told them to bill me for the balance and rush me my Longines Symphonette AM-FM Radio/Stereo Phonograph with all the exciting extras. A couple weeks passed. By now I'm wondering if maybe it had been delivered and I wasn't home to receive it. Just as I was about to drop them a letter telling them I was home, I got this letter saying due to (something) the shipment of my Stereo has been delayed approximately six weeks. Meanwhile, the next Selection of the Month Album arrived with a bill. Reluctantly I mailed them a check for the album.

I got a bill for the remaining $15.95 which I ignored. (I'm angry by now). No more word from them until the next Selection of the Month Album List arrived for me to select an alternate if I so desired. I ignored it. (I'm still angry about the six week delay on something that was packaged and ready to ship.)

A couple weeks later the straw that broke the camel's back arrived. I received this long letter from the Capitol Record Club signed by the Membership Director, Mr. Kenneth Shaw, stating that there will be a further delay on my stereo due to circumstances beyond their control. The delay will be an additional six weeks at least. BUT, I had a choice: #1 - Send me another free record of my choice now, for being so understanding (pick the record), and wait; #2 - Send me my money back, no longer interested. Well, by now I have to do a lettle thinking. They've gotten three record albums paid for at an average of $6 each in three months. Supposed they did this with 10,000 people. In 90 days they have gained $60,000 I checked #1 (I'll wait - surprise them). I also selected another album for my patience. I sat down and wrote them a three-page letter telling them how I felt about the entire system, and how I was going to take it to the Supreme Court, if necessary, to get justice. I told them to keep the $15.95 to help their court costs. I mailed both letters the next morning. I came home that evening and was welcomed by my Longines Symphonette AM-FM Radio/Stereo Phonograph equipped with twin bookshelf speakers, dust cover, automatic frequency control, slide-type tone and volume controls, and simulated wood-grain cabinet. Was I shocked? Are you? I wished I could have stopped the mail man from picking up my two letters of that morning. Now they are going to think I'm worse than the heel of a camel. Wait until they read the letter.

Well, I have my faith in mankind back and I am happy. I have reasons to be happy. The main reason is that my boss (Andy Barragan) visited his doctor the other day. Are you ready for this? Remember those stupid machines I told you about? The ones who had given up on Andy? Well they ate their word too. Mr. Andy Barragan has a heart beat. Verified by the same machines that gave up on him. And he is getting stronger and stronger each and every day. Watch out world - that should tell you a lot.

Out of the night that covers me,/Black as the pit from pole to pole, /I thank whatever gods may be/For my unconquerable soul. (W.E. Henley).

As I See It

By Mel Vercoe

I can hardly wait until Martha Mitchell gets on the bathroom extension of her telephone and explains to the press what really happened in the 1972 Teapot Dome scandal - the purported payoff by the ITT to the Republican party in return for favorable treatment in high places in Washington, D.C.

Jack Anderson, the columnist who blew the whistle on the whole mess, is obviously not a Jack Webb "Dragnet" fan. Mr. Webb changes the names to protect the innocent. Mr. Anderson keeps the names intact in a determined effort to not protect the guilty. A few people recognize and are grateful for the efforts of man like Anderson, but most just find it interesting that some fellow is willing to take away from a golf game to try to expose some of the corruption that has become such a popular pastime in our country.

Depending on whether an observer views such things with interest or with concern, I think we must all admit that our country has a rough road ahead when corruption and deceit in high places has become not the exception but rather the acceptable normal behavior. It is not unusual to hear a citizen remark that a change for the better in our society has to start with the guy at the bottom of the ladder, or with a strengthening of the family unit. I personnally think it would be a tremendous step forward if our Presidents and Cabinet members, for example, were to make a strong public plea for more honesty in government and then set examples for us to follow.

A well known local Congressman was on a radio talk show as a guest a few evenings ago. He deplored the irresponsible spending that made it necessary to increase the national debt limit, and then justified his own consistent support of a war that has now passed the 200 billion dollar cost mark by saying Mr. Nixon was doing a good job of winding down the war, and should be supported with more money. I couldn't resist temptation, so I called in and asked a simple question - "Would Mr. Nixon have been elected if he had told the people during his campaign in 1968 that his secret plan to end the war was going to take four years and might end the war just before the 1972 election?"

Church Services

What are the demands of God-given freedom? This question will be considered Sunday at Christian Science church services in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter."

"All nature teaches God's love to man, but man cannot love god supremely and set his whole affections on spiritual things, while loving the material or trusting in it more than in the spiritual," a citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states.

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Monterey, begin at 10:30 a.m. All are welcome.

Serving as vice-president of the Student Employment Service of Monterey Peninsula has been a very rewarding experience. I feel this organization fulfills a purpose that is not met by any other organization in the community. It's function is to serve all local students of the Monterey Peninsula with employment opportunities for after school, weekends and/or summer employment.

Miss Phyllis E. Howard, Executive Director, has been the driving force behind this program for many years and should be commended for her unselfish dedication to our youth.

This organization seek to fill employment opportunities for low-income young people and each summer job openings are offered by Fort Ord, Naval Post Graduate School as well as many other private organizations and individuals.

From 1959 to 1971 students have been placed in more than 15,000 jobs under this program. This service gives all students an opportunity to earn money, learn a job or skill and most importantly build a record of work experience. Student Employment Service work applications can be obtained at the Student Employment Office, 480 Webster Street, Monterey or at the Counseling Office at local high schools. Student Employment Service office hours are Monday through Friday from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. for after school and/or weekend employment. All students who seek only summer employment should apply during Easter Week. I urge all interested young people to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Dinner

This Saturday, March 18, the annual United States Military Academy Founders Day Dinner will be held.

If there are any graduates of the Military Academy who have not received an invitation and desire to make reservations, they should call Ft. Ord at 242-4442 or 242-6265.

Letters To The Editor

Editor: How can we tell if we age gracefully?

Can we joke? And take a joke on ourselves? Do we take life too seriously? Are we "hung-up" on some opinions? Have to let loose a barrage of words about them often?

Do we sometimes question some of our notions? Are we friendly? Do our frailities "get us down" constantly? Have we learned to overcome them, or at least "live with them?" Do we smile frequently? Agree often?

Can we listen well to another viewpoint? Are we acquiring in time more worthwhile knowledge? Have we firm control over our tempers? Do we master our egos? Are we mostly relaxed or are we tense in a terrible rush?

Can we not surmise from the above what answers add up to aging gracefully?

Grooving Around the Peninsula

with BETTY MANN

Hi there, fellow Peninsulans:

The Monterey Peninsula Cotillion Legaue "did it up right" again this year at their Third Annual Cotillion Ball. Approximately 650 persons were invited to enjoy the dazzling presentation of 21 lovely debutantes from the Seaside and Monterey Area. The young ladies were quite stunning in their lace and satin bouffant ball gowns. As each deb was introduced, her father or male escort was waiting at the bottom of the floral bedecked arch to accompany her down the red carpeted aisle to take her bow of homage in front of her mother at the edge of the ballroom floor. Each debutante gave the customary bow, and presented her mother with a long-stemmed red rose and then proceeded further down the aisle on her father's arm to be presented to her escort.

After each deb was presented, the debutantes and escorts performed the minuet. Following the minuet, the Master of Ceremonies, Dr. Henry Hutchins, invited the fathers and mothers of the debs to participate in the traditional dancing of the waltz.

During the beginning of the evening's festivities, Miss Betty Sapp, President of the league, presented honorary member, Mrs. Charlie Knight, with a gold plaque in appreciation for outstanding services to the Cotillion League and to the debutantes for the last three years. Dr. Hutchins introduced Mrs. Mary Burden, 1st Vice-President and myself 2nd Vice-President, who presented bouquets of red roses to Betty Sapp, chariman of the debutante charm clinic, Ruthie Watts co-chairman Mrs. Prince Harris and Miss Dorothy Evans.

Mrs. Virna Canson, a lobbyist of the Califnia State Legislature, presented debutante Shella Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Richardson, with the Miss Congeniality Trophy that stands three feet high and which is considered an outstanding award for the debutante who is chosen by secret vote by her sister debutantes as the most congenial person in their group. After the presentation of debutantes, the audience was entertained by the 87th Off-Broadway Band, who played very sophisticated music during the presentation and played a variety of "soul numbers" after the presentation.

At midnight the King Taylor Conspiracy Band came on the scene to provide hard soul and rock music for the breakfast dance that followed the ball. An elaborate buffet breakfast was served on the spot-lighted patio that was artistically arranged with a huge ice carving of a swan, which presided regally in the middle of the buffet table overlooking the crowd of Diners. The Chef of the Del Monte Hyatt House spent many hours on this beautiful ice carving.

On Sunday following the ball, yours truly, along with Ira Lively, Lucy Dansby, Rita Messick, Virginia Jackson, Donna Elwood, Venita Coleman, Ven Pagiban, Elizabeth Ratz, William Hill, E. Walser James, Peter Krasa and two ladies from the Marina Area, left for an ESEA Conference in Palm Springs. We were met by Mrs. Charlie Knight, ESEA Director for Monterey County, at the Rivera Hotel and Country Club, where the majority of the entourage stayed. The three gentlemen of the group were lodged down the street at the El Midador Hotel, another exclusive hotel in Palm Springs. The conference that we attended was titled ACACE and the theme of the conference was "Write On!" "Read On!" We attended many workshops and were told how we can selp schools in our area improve the methods of reading, writing and math by utilizing more para-professionals and organizing Parent Advisory Committees, that will entail more parent involvement in the classrooms and on the campus.

After attending the interesting sessions during the day, our really "together" group from Monterey went nightclubbing. Wow!! did we have a ball. Some of us got a taste of the rich life in Palm Springs. I personally feel now that every ritzy restaurant on the peninsula should have their waiters dress in black tie and tails and pull the ladies' seats out from the table and seat her properly (smiles)!

MPC Blood Drive Is Tomorrow

Students at Monterey Peninsula College will sponsor a blood drive tomorrow (Friday,) in cooperation with the Red Cross.

Donors may give blood between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the lower lounge of the College Center. The drive is sponsored by the Student Activities Office.

"We hope to have as large a tournout as we had last fall," said Bill Glover, student activities advisor. "Donors may give on behalf of themselves or others," he said.

In the fall, a special drive was held in behalf of the children of an MPC instructor. The children, hemophiliacs, require transfusions of blotting agents. That drive resulted in the family's receiving a three-year's supply of the clotting agent.

Yale Russian Chorus to Perform Here

The 35-voice Yale Russian Chorus will present a concert of Russian folk and liturgical music next Tuesday, March 21 at 8:15 P.M. at the Santa Catalina School in Monterey.

This internationally famous group has won world-wide acclaim. Organized in 1954, the Yale Club of Monterey and the Santa Catalina School, net proceeds of the concert will benefit their scholarship fund to help send local students to Yale University. Reservations may be made for the concert by calling 375-4612. Tickets may also be purchased at the box office the night of the performance.

Led by a 21-year-old Yale Junior music major, Daniel Godfrey, the Yale Russian Chorus toured the Soviet Union in the summer of 1971 where it performed to enthusiastic audiences. The late Secretary of State Averill Harriman said, "I think the Yale Russian Chorus is one of the most imaginative and penetrating programs of cultural exchange that has been undertaken by the government or by private initiative.

Chairman for the event is Edward F. Roberts, M.D., of Pebble Beach and committee members include Kenneth Ahrens of Pacific Grove and Joseph Leo of Monterey.

Skills Center Solves Two Problems

What is being done for soldiers leaving the service, unskilled in civilian jobs but seeking employment? Where will organized labor obtain skilled or semi-skilled individuals to fill the growing number of vacancies within their structures?

In answer to those two problems, the Continental Army Command set the stage for ten Skill Centers located throughout the United States. One of these centers is located in the Ft. Ord area in Salinas. The Ft. Ord Education center, directly responsible for operating the project, initiated it in January 1972 by expanding its Project Transition program, which already offered informal and formal vocational training to military personnel prior to their release from the service.

The Skill Center offers a selected schedule of 12 classes for six weeks of intensive training in the soldier/student's choice of skills.

The following courses are being conducted at the Skill Center in conjunction with hartnell College: auto body repair, auto mechanics, service station operation, drafting, office machine repair, refrigeration/air conditioning and carpentry. Classes are held in the Streater Building on Airport Boulevard in Salinas under the direction of the college vocational director, Lyman Fowler. The other four classes, cement masonry, bricklaying, telephone lineman/cable splicer and hotel/motel management, are conducted at the Education Center on Ft. Ord.

Upon satisfactory completion of a course, the student receives certification from the Education Center and the training facility. Hartnell College also offers six semester hours of credit for each class completed in the Skill Center.

Of the Skill Center concept, Andrew Bucker, program director, states, "The concept of this program is the training and motivation of the individual into a specific skill that will afford him the opportunity to better assimilate into the civilian community by preparing himself for permanent employment in a skill or vocation."

Birth Films To Be Shown

Two films, "Childbirth for the Joy of It" and "Story of a Birth," will be shown free of charge at the Monterey Public library tomorrow (Friday,) at 8 p.m.

The film showing is presented by the Childbirth Education League of the Monterey Peninsula which sponsors prenatal classes stressing "prepared childbirth."

Mary Ellen / Social Editor

MISS MONTEREY COUNTY OF 1972

A native California, Miss Debbie Eler, 20, of Pacific Grove, is the first candidate for the crown of Miss Monterey County of 1972.

Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Elder. She was born in Salinas. A graduate of Pacific Grove High School, she is now a student of Monterey Peninsula College, where she is majoring in dental hygiene.

She hopes for a future in the field of dental technology and if she wins the title of Miss Monterey County, she will use her scholarship to take advanced training at the University of California Medica School in San Francisco.

Debbie currently is teaching ballet at LaMesa School in Monterey. That's an avocation she hopes to keep all of her life

"I've been taking ballet since I was seven," she explains, "and I never mean to leave it throughout my lifetime."

And with that kind of feeling about ballet, she still plans to do a tap dance for her talent number in the Miss Monterey County Contest, which will be held in the Exposition Hall on the Fairgrounds the weekend of April 20, 21 and 22.

Pageant chairman Mrs. Leslie Dixon currently is planning a three-night production with elimination contests on April 20 and 21. And the finals on the evening of April 22.

Debbie says she has never appeared in a beauty contest before, but entered this one on the recommendation of a photographer friend.

She is a petite 33-23-33 and of "topaz" coloring, she says. She explains she has "yellow-brown" hair like the gem, fair skin and brown eyes. She is five feet, four inches tall.

Her hobbies cover a wide spectrum of interests. There's the ballet, and her appearances in some of the shows in Monterey's First Theatre, for starters. Then there's hiking for the Debbie who's the outdoor girl. And finally the domestic Debbie, who like to cook and "even likes to iron."

The selection of an outstanding girl to represent Monterey County in a preliminary to the Miss America Pageant is a responsibility which we must all share. Miss Monterey County not only represents our most beautiful young woman, but also one who is intelligent, talented and wishes to pursue a career. Above all, she must be personable. The selection for this title means much to our representative -- it not only awards her a scholarship, but also allows her to compete for the title of Miss California, which offers her an even larger scholarship and many experiences in personal appearances.

This year, we are most fortunate in having a professional producer-director, Ross Latimer, a professional promotion and publicity director as well as an experience staff.

In addition, two work sessions will be held, March 18 and 25, at 1 p.m., in the Home Economics Building on the Fairgrounds. At this time, the participants will receive professional coaching assistance to develop their talents. Each young woman will draw the name of a hostess who will be with her at all times during the work sessions and pageant to assist her and share her pleasant experiences. She will also receive instructions on correct make-up, posture, poise and presentation techniques and be given a helpful booklet on make-up. This is the same one-used in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

The title selection for this year's pageant is "Born Free." In keeping with this title, we are ecphasizing simplicity and quality. If a pretty girl, between the ages of 18 and 28, in your community, family, school, club or neighborhood is reluctant to enter, encourage her. If she is not sure what she could do in the talent segment, she may arrange an act such as a reading, dramatic skit or dance routine. If she does not know anyone who can assist her, urge her to call some one on the staff, (call Edda at the Fair Office, 372-5863 or yours truly, 394-3058.)

Monterey County has one of the most beautiful coastal areas, one of the richest valleys and scenic mountains in the world. We would certainly be remiss, if we were not represented by one of our beautiful, talented young women in the Miss California and even Miss America competitions.

We are not only asking for your support in encouraging candidates to enter, but also to attend the pageant, April 20, 21 and 22.

There will be a prominent emcee and five judges who do not reside in our County. Parents are encouraged to attend all sessions as observers at any time.

Deadline for entering the 1972 Miss Montesey County Contest was March 15, yesterday, but it has been extended for a couple of more days. Completed entry blanks must be on pageant director's desk at that time. Forms are available from the pageant office at the Monterey Fairgrounds, from area Chambers of Commerce Offices in the County or from any pageant committee member.

Still Time to Apply For Fellowships

Assemblyman Bob Wood recently said that "there is still time for graduate college students to apply for California State Scholarships for the coming school year."

Wood said that "this year in Sacramento there would be 740 State Fellowships for graduate and professional school students in California. Entering and currently enrolled students in these schools are eligible to receive a State Graduate Fellowship. The Fellowship can pay all of any tuition or fee costs to the student."

The Fellowships are granted for one full academic year and awarded on the basis of acacemic record and financial need. Wood said that this program is part of the State's promise that "no student should be denied undergraduate or graduate training solely because he does not have the funds and the financial resources to continue on with his schooling."

Applicants must be residents of California and have taken the appropriate tests for admission to graduate or professional schools. Professional schools could include such things as law school, medical school, dentistry school, etc. Applicants must submit all necessary papers to the California Scholarship and Loan Commission by April 3.

Wood went on to say that application packets are available at his District Office in Salinas, 32 East Alisal Street and may be obtained by writing to him at that address or calling the office, 424-1703.

The Monterey County Assemblyman went on to say that he hoped that "many students from Monterey County would apply and have a chance to receive a State Graduate Scholarship."

In Memory Of A Stolen Bike

By Vernon Renn

The morning glories glow in the early morning sun;
The soft wind whispers sweetly,
The fireflies have all gone to sleep,
The babies have stopped crying
And only a few now weep
This morning.

The sun is getting higher,
The sky is getting skyer
And I am getting higher
This morning.

Someone stole his bike last night.
His two-wheel streak of light;
But somehow or other
Everything will be alright.

Education Is Topic

As part of their study of the quality of public school education in California, the League of Women Voters of the Monterey Peninsula will discuss accountability, special programs, voucher plans and contracting at their general meeting tonight (Thursday) at Pacific Grove Community Center, Junipero at 14th Street.

Open House

A new portable classroom equipped as a nurse's aide and orderly teaching facility will be open for public view at Seaside High School March 17 from 1-3 p.m.

A portion of the classroom is designed as a simulated hospital room, where high school students learn the knowledge and skills needed to work as aides and orderlies. The course is operated under the Regional Occupational Program and involves students from Salinas as well as the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District.

Students are in the classroom 10 hours a week for a semester, to which is added a minimum of 18 hours working under supervision at convalescent hospitals.

Barbara Roudabush, a registered nurse, is the instructor.

Do you want to believe in God?

You can. Not just because of what someone says about God. But because of what you yourself can learn and prove about divine Love.

Like the woman who was instantly freed by an assailant one night — when she turned to God in prayer. Or the entertainer whose back was healed through prayer after he was told he couldn't walk without surgery.

These individuals found that divine Love meets even the most challenging human needs... that powerful spiritual laws are available for anyone to use.

You can learn more of these laws by reading this week's Bible Lesson.

BROTHERS AND SISTERS OF SEASIDE
May I Remind You?

URBAN RENEWAL: It is my belief that Urban Renewal in its intended use is good for any city or town. That is why the federal government loaned you taxpayers' money to do it, to upgrade you and your property. But I believe that this Urban Renewal money has been used to eliminate, destroy and degrade you and your homes. Look around you at all the vacant lots. Ask yourself where all the people living there have gone. They were promised relocation. Try and find one of the low cost houses that was promised you by Urban Renewal.

CITY GOVERNMENT SHOULD SERVE THE PEOPLE: I don't promise that I can make up for what has happened. I don't promise jobs, a chicken in every pot or a "cad" in your garage. I don't believe in kissing babies and patting dogs to get your vote. But I do believe that you should know the turth about your city government. I don't believe that city officials should have secret meetings behind closed doors, that you don't even know about. Every meeting that is held pertains to you because you are Seaside. You, the people, elected these city officials to properly represent you in city government. You did not elect them to degrade or harss you and take from you. They are public servants and should devote their time to serving you and only you.

NO RECREATIONAL FACILITIES: Seaside is now 18 years old, 18 years old and not one MOVIE for your children to see. Not one public BALL FIELD. Not one public SWIMMING POOL, TENNIS COURT nor DANCE HALL for you and your children. They promised us a LIBRARY until they found it would be in the poor area. Where is it now? ... But all you hear is, "Let's get the kids off the street area. Where is it now? ... But all you hear is, "Let's get the kids off the street." Where do you go? They go to JAIL. That's where they go! I believe it was intended this way for the poor white, black and brown boys of Seaside. Just another process of elimination by your crooked city government.

MY PLANS FOR SEASIDE: People of Seaside, if I am elected, I will ask for an immediate investigation of Urban Renewal funds. I will try to stop the destruction of homes until some are replaced. I will try to salvage some of this money to build much more need facilities, such as a FOOD CO-OP where poor and hungry people can eat and buy food at a price they can afford. I will get mother out of the kitchen and into city affairs. I will have more young people taking an active part in city government. I will hold town meetings to bring the people of Seaside together to discuss problems among themselves. We will get to know each other and become brothers for the same cause, all of us, black, brown and white. We the people can build Seaside with understanding of each other... Yes, City Hall and its policies can be changed, and it can be changed by you... So help me to help you do it. Vote for me, Brady Avery, for Seaside City Councilman on Tuesday, April 11, 1972.

Reinstated

Dr. A. G. Gaston of Birmingham, Alabama, has been ordered reinstated as treasurer of the A.M.E. Church by a United States District judge.

Court enjoined the board of the A.M.E. Church from directly or indirectly interfering with his duties as general treasurer. The injunction is effective pending the convening of the quadrennial conference June 22 to July 2 in Dallas.

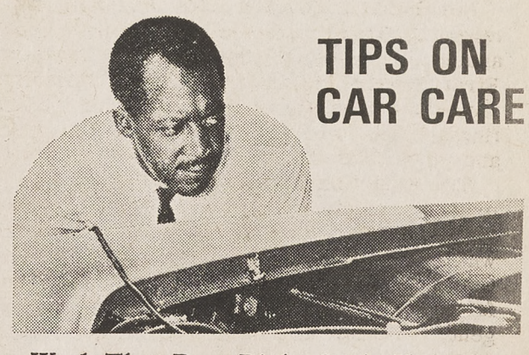
The Judge also ordered the board to make restitution to Dr. Gaston and pay him his salary of office from and after the date of his proposed suspension.

Life Line

by Leo Woicekowski

Fe - Fi - Fo - Fum
We need the blood of an American.
Care not we what color he,
Only that he healthy be.
His bank account we need not see
From his red blood we get our glee.
To process blood, we have plenty
To draw it from, not always many.
Your daily paper tells when to give
So that others will have a chance to live.
They lay you down upon a table
The nurse's name?, it might be Mable
She puts the needle in your arm,
Really folks, it does no harm.
The red blood flows into a bag,
On the way to the lab it does not lag.
To the patient who is in need,
By normal process, it does speed.
A test will show if the blood is bad.
The donor told - he won't be glad
But if he gets right to a Doc
His good wife could be spared a shock.
Early knowledge of a minor fault,
May bring disease to a screeching halt!
The doctor knows, and so do you
That no one's blood is really blue.
When it is used, it will still be red
Regardless of what somebody has said.
Your blood is precious, that we know,
But the body replaces what is allowed to flow.
Now in you span may come a time
When it is your life on the line.

If no one reading hears our plea,
Where will that blood you needed be?
Give real soon, you may be glad,
The needed red cells are to be had.
Tarry no - you may be late;
Call the Red Cross and make that date.
Fe - Fi - Fo - Fum
We need the blood of an American.



TIPS ON CAR CARE

Wash That Rust Right Out'a Your Car

The Saturday bath for car and self is as much a part of American tradition as apple pie and motherhood.

But come the dead days of winter and the American motorist tends to leave his car out in the cold when he "heads for the showers," to borrow a phrase from the national pastime.

Questioning him about this winter weather neglect usually elicits a response that goes: "Why bother, it'll just get dirty again tomorrow."

What our mythical car owner doesn't realize is his indifference hastens the deterioration of his car's finish, leads to rusting and costs him cold, hard cash at trade-in time.

While today's cars are less likely to rust than vehicles a few years back — thanks to rust-inhibiting primer and better plating of metals used in car construction — even the most modern advances in finish and body protection can be offset by neglect.

Winter is particularly hard on cars even if it amounts to nothing more than cold, rainy weather instead of ice and snow. Sloppy roads hasten the buildup of dirt deposits under fenderwells, creating potential rust problems.

These deposits are easily removed by a trip to the local car wash or, in cold weather, by using a garden hose hooked up to a hot water outlet to blast them away.

North or South, preventive maintainence is the best way to minimize weather damage to your car in all seasons. B.F. Goodrich car care specialists recommend keeping a good coat of hard finish wax on the car. This can be done even in winter in a garage. Surprisingly, garaged cars require more attention than those left outside because low temperatures inhibit corrosion.

Using the touchup paint supplied by most dealers with new cars is also a great aid to stopping rust. It is especially useful in repairing the damage done to finishes by parking lot door "mashers."

They Do Their Art Thing

A unique community created by two Black artists provided one of the location sites in "Imagination: A Child's World," a one-hour video special starring Jonathan Winters as host, sponsored by Georgia-Pacific of Portland.

The community is St. Elmo Village in Los Angeles.

An urban renewal project, the Village consists of ten 80-year-old houses surrounding a plaza. It was a slum area until Rozzell and Roderick Skyes saw its potential. Now it is not only home to ten families but an art center known for its exhibits and its way of life.

St. Elmo Village gets its name from the street on which it is located.

It is a center for self-expression in virtually all of the arts. All residents are encouraged to express themselves artistically--by painting, sculpting, doing their thing in creating murals, metal sculptures and pop art.

A 100,000-square foot mural embraces the entire village. Sidewalks and the plaza are decorated. The exteriors of the home and garages display paintings by Rozzell and Roderick Skyes -- they're uncle and nephew -- as well as other residents.

ART FOR ALL

Each family pays the same $75 a month rent. Residents, including children, attent free Village workshops and, given the necessary materials, are urged to express the creative drives the Skyes believe exists in everyone to find expression.

Every Sunday outdoor exhibits are held from noon till dark. In addition, other work is shown in the Village's coffee shop.
